

CLAIMS

What is claimed is:

1. A method for providing extensible online help, comprising:
importing an extension;
providing a help system adapted to process documentation content upon import of the extension; and providing a help display adapted to provide display operations for the help system.